The Golden Bear

PRESENTED BY THE STUDENT COUNCIL

WASHINGTON JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

The Yearbook Staff

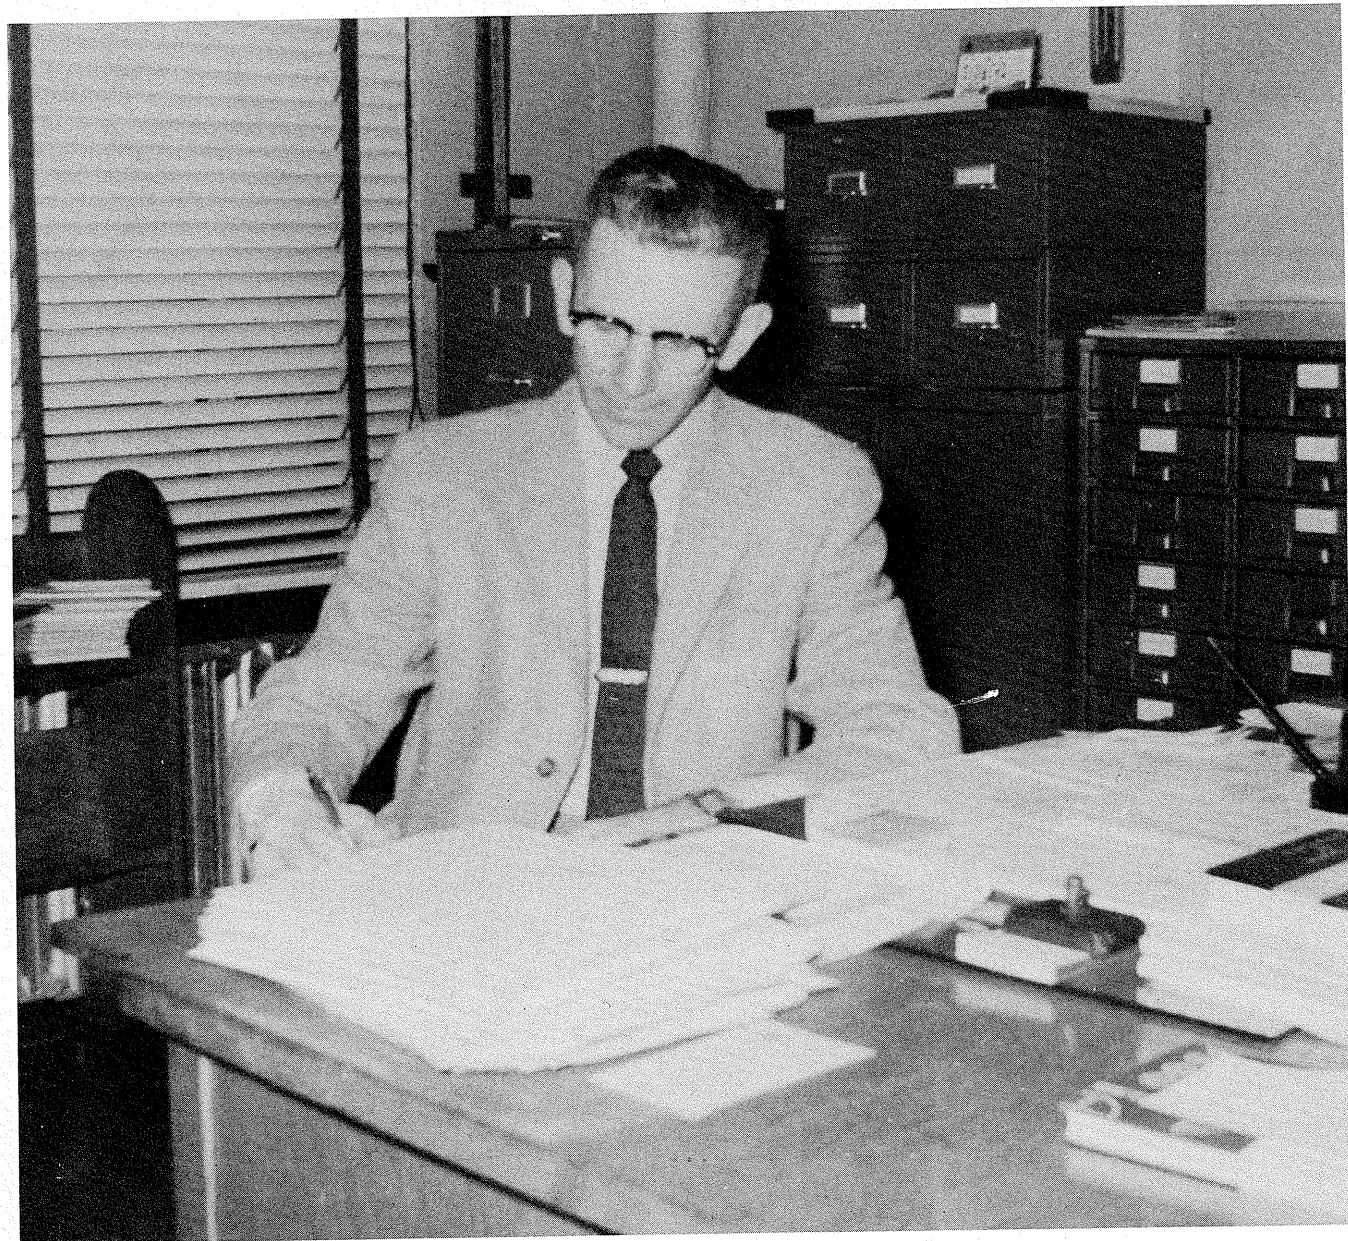

The yearbook staff, a Student Council committee, was formed to plan and make the "Golden Bear" for 1957-58. The members worked many hours outside of school to make this book for your pleasure.

The staff members are:

Co-editors; Tarry McDaid, Sally Smith

Art Cooley Barb Fair
Jeanine Klettner Kathy Klettner
 Jim Pleger

Principal's Message

We are proud and happy to present the 1957-1958 "Golden Bear" Yearbook to our many students and friends.

Congratulations to all those who worked so hard to make this Yearbook a part of Junior High School life.

In Appreciation

It is a pleasure to acknowledge your contributions of many years to our Student Council. We look with envy upon what you have accomplished during the organization of this great service to the Washington Junior High School.

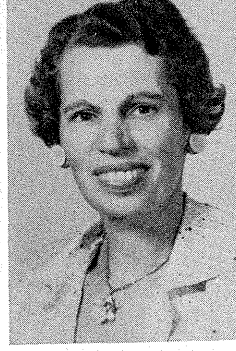

Your intelligent planning has meant much to the improvement of our school.

Ninth Grade Girls' Basketball Team

Forty-two girls answered the call to tryout for the school team this year. After five weeks of practice the following squad was chosen: Captain, Sharlene Mack; Co-captain, Yvonne Lindsay; Sharon Briggs, Carol Mooney, Anne Marie Falk, Connie Mericka, Barbara Whybrew, Donna Kerr, Ann Van Conant, Jane Wiegand, Sherry Geoffrey, Sue Gleason, Karen Cornelius, Maralee Raetzl, Linda Garrow, Gayle Kovatch, Mary Rose Goodison, (Mgr.); Elaine Goldman, (Mgr.) Coach, Miss Powers.

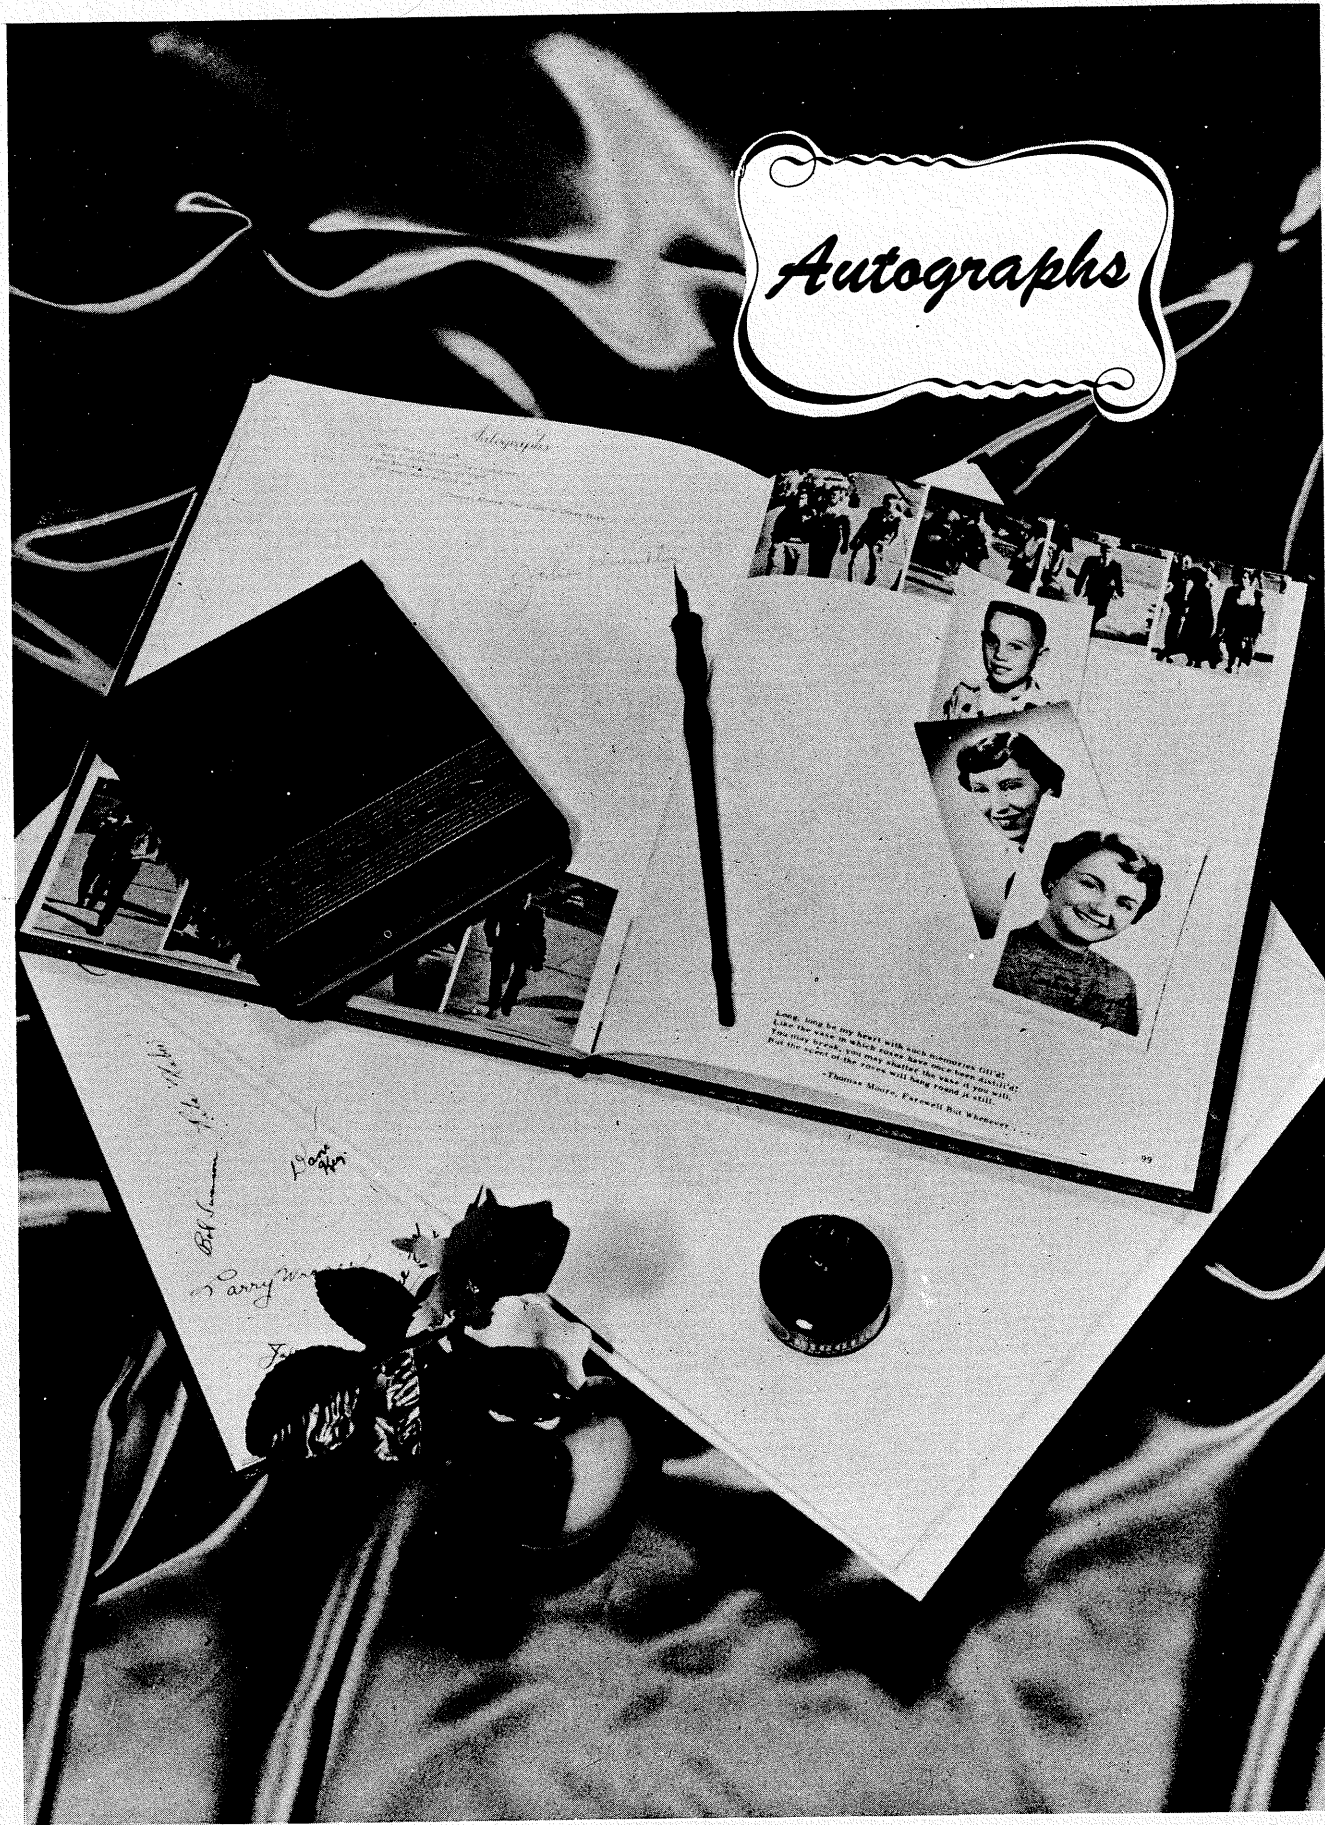

The first game the team played was their best. They greatly outplayed the girls from Garfield. After that the tables were turned. Garfield improved to such an extent that they were on top in the scoring during the final three games of the series.
